

PASSATEMPO AT THE JOSEPH

AUTUMN EDITION

Meaning hobby or pastime in Italian, “Passatempo” at The Joseph encourages curiosity and promises memorable moments through a curated collection of experiences available throughout the property.

Whether you’re looking to pass the time in between meetings or adventures in the city, or seeking to immerse yourself deeper into the blended Southern and Italian culture of The Joseph, unique discoveries await...

START YOUR DAY HERE

Pair an Italian espresso with one (or a few) of our house-made morning pastries, featuring seasonal flavors and classic twists, at Yolán's buzzing Espresso Bar.

FONDUE WITH A VIEW

Cozy up fireside in a private cabana and enjoy savory cheese or decadent chocolate fondue, paired with sweeping views from 21 stories above the city.

RESERVE FIRESIDE FONDUE

One-day advanced reservations required.

STEP INTO AUTUMN

Care for tired feet with a seasonal pedicure at Rose, The Joseph's luxury spa and salon. A cranberry-orange soak, brown sugar scrub, and warm cinnamon hydration restore skin — and spirit — for the season ahead.

SPRITZ AND STUZZI

In the late afternoon before dinner service begins, enjoy signature stuzzi (snacks) paired with vibrant cocktails and spritzes during Aperitivo, a classic Italian tradition meant to be shared and served daily at Yolán's bar along the boulevard.

DAILY APERITIVO, 2 PM TO 5 PM

STROLL ON EIGHT

The Joseph's 8th floor is home to an art gallery featuring photographs from Alec Soth's "Songbook" series. Imagine the stories of each subject, then take in the fresh air from the terrace overlooking the city below.
